

Activity 1:

Now containerize a Python-based web application using Docker and package it for deployment on both Linux and Windows platforms.

Activity 2:

Now build and containerize a Node.js REST API, ensuring the Docker image runs on multiple architectures including Linux and Windows (amd64).